

Please Learn These Two New Words

From now on, whenever you hear or read, in any books, the words conscious mind, the world without or objective mind, please now use the word “Captain” instead. Because I will. From now on.

Conscious Mind + Objective Mind = Captain

Think of the Captain on top of the ship. He is the voice and commander than runs the rest of the ship and navigates it safely.
You will now represent and play the part of the captain.

The Captain

Captain and Crew Training

From now on, whenever you hear or read, in any books, the words SUBCONSCIOUS mind or subjective mind, please now use the word “Crew” instead. Because I will.

Subconscious Mind or Subjective Mind = is now called “the Crew.”

As Easy as Duck Soup, and I’ll Prove it To You

1: The captain sits all the way on top of the ship and he is now your conscious mind. Some call him the objective mind.

Conscious

He is basically a worry wart, does loads of thinking and often forgets who he is because he listens to what his friends tell him he is. He is also known as the conscious mind.

2: The crew sits way down beneath sea level. You can’t see these guys, but there is an entire team below. Some people call this the SUBCONSCIOUS or the Subjective mind, who do whatever the captain dictates to it.

Subconscious

Even bring you a Million dollars or say, if the captain says, “go lose twenty pounds and be quick about it!”

The crew is responsible for keeping the ship afloat.
The crew does whatever the captain says, as long as he means it.

The “Crew” can not create or decide. All it can do it “copy.” Think of a copy machine. Therefore, when you verbally (as the Captain) direct the Crew, all it hears is a to-do list and doesn’t differentiate, decide yes or no because its only job is to take orders from above.

The captain is on deck, above the water while the “Crew” and the workers are down beneath.

Same here.

The conscious sits on top and the powerful subconscious is beneath.

P.S. Your crew loves to play cards!

Sample Scripts, Tips and Tricks

Script #1—Use your name and your own references of course.

"I am the captain, I am great and the light of God and I now call to me the Joe Schroeder who once got a standing ovation doing magic. I am blessed.

I am also calling the Joe Schroeder who once was on the covers of magazines and made a Million dollars. I now need 25 new customers. I do NOT know where they are, you do. Please bring them to me and you can bring situations, people and things as "signs." Please hurry and I appreciated last weeks $27,000. Thank you God."

Use For Money

- ? The crew takes you at your word. It doesn't calibrate or judge you.
- ? The above script is an example of the Captain dictating to the crew.
- ? Did you notice how I involved people from my past to aid in my request?
- ? Always ask the "better" you to assist you when pray into yourself & crew.
- ? The crew only has one word in their vocabulary and that is the word "yes."
- ? I do "crew training" separately AFTER I pray to my Lord the Father.
- ? Always REMIND the crew what a fabulous job they did last time you gave orders.
- ? GET a journal and document just how magical this system works; and it does!!!

Script #2—Use your name and your own references of course.

"I am the captain, I am great and the light of God and I now call to me the Joe Schroeder who once brought many friends to me. I am now going to a party and sometimes get a little nervous.

Tonight, I want you all to make me relaxed, happy and please BRING me the person tonight who is ALSO shy who I can leverage and make happy. Tonight my job is to bless people. At the party at 9 PM please show me the person there, who will be uncomfortable as well and PLEASE USE me to relax them. I am blessed and I need this now tonight. Amen and thanks bunches. Kiss-Kiss! Love, Joe!"

Before A Date or Party

Script #3—Listen to how the Captain Gives orders to his Crew

"It's me again fella's. Listen up. Please bring me the light of He who made me and I just joined this cool new networking program. I am CLUELESS in how to make it work or how to get people into my sales funnel, but you do. Remember, I DO NOT know where the 200 people are, you do and I need you to HELP ME oh please, oh, and make sure you bring the Joe Schroeder who once was able to do ten one-handed push-ups, he was the BEST I am Joe Schroeder and he will assist. Please bring to me, the people, the technique, special teachers and just show me, guide me to my 200 people. I am blessed, you are love and I AM who I say I am and I am in possession of $100,000 and my bank account is + $100,000. Please make it so. Begin now. Thanks so much guys and thank you Father, I so need you now."

Building A Team

You're allowed to bring YOUR better SELVES "of you" to the equation. I USE the past "Joe Schroeders" and ask them to again perform PERFECTLY for me.

The guys asked...

“Why Do We Do “Crew Training” and Why
Doesn’t Positive Thinking Work?”

Then the lady asked,

“I Went To $10,000 Dollars Worth of Motivation Seminars. Little Changed
and I am Really No Different, Joe,
How Come This is Like That?”

Motivation, Seminars & Positive Thinking
Rarely, if Ever, Works. *Here’s How Come:

Your Mental Apartment

Imagine that you live inside of a “mental apartment” and that all of your furniture is all of your thoughts.

Your “mental apartment” is furnished with everything you think about yourself, all of your values and beliefs and a boat load of what is inside of your apartment, is “hand me down” furniture—given to you from friends, ole Uncle Harry and the Jones; your neighbors, who live next door.

So far, sounds groovy. Sounds good. But watch what happens.

Write this down. “Pump-up” Feels Good Seminars Don’t Work.”

All of the furniture represents all of the ideas that other people told you were and were not possible.

Everyone in your lifes path, who helped to condition your subconscious, all added "mental furniture" into your home.

The couch represents the negative programming your sixth grade teacher Mrs. McGillicutty chipped in, which scored into your brain that you were a S-L-O-W learner.

Then there's the old rickety table. Oh, that's the "piece" a buddy from college gave you that represents "there's never enough money to go around. That life is a struggle and you better doggone get a good job to make sure you get paid in life." Because without benefits you're screwed.

The paintings are old mental files too. The sofa is torn and dirty and those all represent the negative self-image conditioning your "friends" at work laced oh so liberally into your ego. The ego by the way, dictates WHO you think you are which in turn calibrates what you ALLOW yourself to do.

Some of the furniture though, is strong, new and pretty.

That's the stuff that you brought into the apartment. But most of the furniture is tired, doesn't work and is "hand me downs" given to you as negative files from other people.

And each piece of furniture is sitting on the floor of your subconscious mind.

Get my drift? See where I am going with this?

Don't be too sure, watch this.

Reading Ten Motivation Books Per Month Won't Change Your Life Anymore Than Listening To Me on Live Calls Twice a Week

Then, you have this "wild" idea. You hire a life "coach" to remove all, not some, but all of the furniture in your apartment. What an idea!

So there you and she are. Her name is "Coach Dion" and man did you guys wipe out your apartment, and fast! It only took a lousy few hours! Everything got removed and put into the garage and you even tipped Sister Dion $50 bucks.

Ya-Hoo!

Wait though. The story thickens. Watch what happens to you next. This next part is unbelievable!

Your Mental Apartment

Now it's dinner time and you're alone in your new empty apartment. You're jacked because all of the negative "junk" has been removed and you sense a feeling of new power and you open the window, poke your beautiful little head out and shout, "I feel ten feet tall and bullet proof!"

Now it's after dinner and it's two hours later. You look around and all of a sudden you feel lonely. Remember, you have nothing to sit on, no negative TV to keep you company and there you are, all by your lonesome. Boo-hoo.

So what would any good standing American do? Right. You dart out to the garage and say, "I'll just bring back my negative chair, nothing more, just the chair."

Great. You brought BACK some negative files back into your house. Opps, there's that old TV set. Yup. You went to get that too, half an hour later. After all, what good is the old comfy cozy chair without your negative TV to keep you happy!

Now, by midnight, you bring all of the furniture back from the garage right back into your apartment in it's original location. Each negative file. Right back where you started.

How many times on the internet have you joined a new hot business opportunity, only to quit a few months later. From there, the quit-join-quit pattern continues, and continues.

But why?

Because as a people, we are the most comfortable with the thoughts we have used and had the longest. Who cares if those thoughts have hurt us, your reasoning conscious mind deducts.

So what? Those are safe thoughts because those thoughts have been with you as your "program" the longest.

One of my teachers used to say, "Failure for those who fail, that is their program." Meaning, that is how they set-up their minds. Which like a computer, uses mental files to dictate what they do, how well they do it and for how long.

The Mistake Coach Dion Made:

The problem was, Coach Dion didn't give you NEW FURNITURE to replace the old "files."

When you want to stop negative patterns and remove self defeating programming, if you do not immediately insert NEW FILES and new furniture, the mind will revert back, like a rubber band, to its original "mold." To maintain its sanity.

Exactly Step-By-Step How “Change” Occurs

- 3: Change only happens through repetition. This is why at school, they had you repeat the A-B-C’s a ga-zillion times. Without repetition, change can not occur.
- 4: If you don’t INSERT new thoughts, positive thinking alone doesn’t work because where there is no new BELIEF to support the new Norman Vincent Peale positive thinking riff, you have no “glue” to grab hold of the “feels good” mantra.
- 5: If the seminar motivation coach isn’t going to go home with you for a few months and sit with you on your new furniture, the pump up speech won’t work because your old lazy subconscious will still use its old program computer files to SORT the motivational speakers ideas as. . .

The Old Mind That Got You Into Trouble In The First Place uses its Old Program Files To Sort NEW Information and It Often Sounds Like.. .

- ? “Won’t work for me.”
- ? “This will cost me too much money.”
- ? “This is too abstract for me.”
- ? “Ah heck, impossible, too far fetched.”
- ? “This is way, way out of my comfort zone.”
- ? “My church doesn’t agree with this!”
- ? “This is all just hot-air and hype.”

- 6: All external motivation is useless and doesn’t work unless while using motivation, you are sitting there with a “new disk” and re-programming the motivation as it’s being subjected towards you.
- 7: As many books on success that you may read, if you are trying to absorb the information while sitting on old furniture and using old program files from an old computer brain, the MIND will not accept the NEW beliefs as TRUE.
- 8: Positive “yeah-yeah-rah-rah” thinking doesn’t work BECAUSE the computer in your brain is asking, “Give me more, I need a SCRIPT and I need new words” and it’s also asking, “Do you have a 1-2-3 application here because you need to tell me step-by-step how to ERASE what negative stuff Mom used to tell you so we can re-program you to be wealthy and strong.”
- 9: The brain needs to literally be trained, over a vast amount of time to accept and calibrate NEW habits as true. Ask any kid who learned to play the piano.

Why Crew Training is Such a Break Through!

Why “Self-Help” Rarely Works

10: Many people actually use me to attach to energy. Addictively, they listen to me on calls, over dose on my audio CD's and that's because they, like a morphine drip, are using my energy—actually using my energy—for a quick endorphin rush.

Which is useful, needed and again, etches the “mind set” into them. However and but, if that person doesn't learn to self induce and doesn't learn to “install” the energy themselves, all is for not and change resists them. Period.

Therefore, CREW TRAINING is actually self inducement.

It's a profound, profound discovery that if used, in conjunction with a myriad of other shadow disciplines, can and will absolutely place you into massive, massive change and can transcend you into an entirely different and more rewarding environment.

11: People like Tony Robbins, Dr. Wayne Dyer and myself usually sit in front of very excited people who are dead serious to become “ten feet tall and bullet proof,” but who actually are sitting their with OLD PROGRAM disk files in their hands.

Yikes. Not good. Terrible in fact. Therefore. . .

The perfect and reverse scenario, would be to be taking in the new mind-set while sitting in NEW FURNITURE and with a new computer program right there on your lap with new FILES!

Most people's brains (subconscious) have actually been programmed to reject new information, new ideas and new opportunities. Why? Because the old furniture is more cozy.

Go Test My Theory, Because it's Fact, Not Theory!

Test it. Go tell ten friends, “I am going for a Million dollars in ten months!” --and see what their PROGRAM FILES respond to you with. See for yourself just how “scarcity” programmed smart people actually are!

12: People desperately want to believe. They oh so want to rise and to be larger selves. But then the persnickety REASONING deductive “conscious” mind takes over and says, “shut up, won't work, we already tried this and remember the LAST time you bought into this junk!”

The Back Story on My Teacher Tony Robbins

If you don't have Tony's "PERSONAL POWER" tapes get out of town.

I swear they changed my life. I also swear that I listened to them eight hours a day for three years, while driving 100 miles a day selling food door-to-door, as Tony sat there and taught me about SUBCONSCIOUS training.

Most folks didn't recognize that Tony was actually deftly teaching Subconscious "crew" training, but go back and listen to your tapes again, because he was. Big time.

The greatest discovery I made was that I was in 100% control of my life, my environment and my income, in proportion to what I allowed SELF to believe in, and to the degree that I programmed myself to believe in "what was possible."

The Only True Motivation That Works

You work. You are your own best friend. You are the worlds biggest secret, go locate WHERE to best place self. Everyone is waiting. YOU are the greatest motivator there is. Use self talk to TEACH your crew what you want, deserve and can have.

Your crew loves you more than anything else ever. It wants to be with you, tickle your toes and touch your heart. BE with SELF and learn to RE-PROGRAM that old doggone furniture!

(Wink!)

Your CREW will never leave you. The crew goes with you wherever you go and it's the "coach" of the stars! All Millionaires used their CREW for self-talk. Now it's your turn!

You Can use These Seven Tricks To Make Sure The Old Apartment Furniture Never Makes It Back into Your Home!

Tricks Coach Dion Forgot to Teach Me That Made My Subconscious My Slave

Trick #1: Read Books on Dead Presidents and Billionaires.

I did this in order to assume the identity and beliefs of other Millionaires. I did this while in poverty, in order for my mind to assume the NATURE of prosperity.

I was trying to "become the consciousness" of JFK, Muhammad Ali, Bill Clinton, Domino's founder Tom Monaghan and many others.

Tip: I didn't "read" these books. Who has time? All you do is "play" with them. A few pages of MIND-SET per day. Easy.

Trick #2: I ate food and fellowshipped with Giants.

It's hard to remain small when you hang out with Giants. Do the math. It's obvious. "When in Rome" right? Plus, their success made me so peeved, so upset (at me) that I was literally forcing SELF to assume their identity. And it worked.

Trick #3: I Used Coaches and Paid Them to Grow me

Face it, what better short cut is there than to have a skilled coach walking around, sitting in your head, sitting on your new furniture and MAKING you tow the line. It worked.

I was "guilty" by association. In other words, the environment became the territory which became my life. All I did was fuse into my life the "who" I wanted to become.

I added the rich into my life.

I added Ben Franklin and other greats such as James Dean into my mind. They brainwashed me. How? By reading about these Giants non-stop I assumed their MINDS.

I added "business opportunities" into my life and surrounded myself with people earning $25,000 to $200,000 per month by way of example. I sat there, broke, next to self made Millionaires which FORCED me to change, because my OLD self image appeared "dumb" in comparison. And it worked. You must add a TEAM and MASTER-MIND to your life. Why? In order to have the repetition and re-enforcement you'll need 24/7 all year long.

Fuzzy Mind Mathematics Any “Einstein” Who is Age 12 Or Better Can Easily Understand

Use this data and “map” to actually see how CHANGE occurs.

The external world, your reality, is a concert of circumstances, created by you and derived, by you, based on . . .

- Map “A” ? How you re-act to things.
- ? How you digest information.
- ? How you think.

That map, dictates, without error, how you process “life” and then becomes your experienced reality. Underline that for me.

Fine-Point: You use your experienced reality to JUSTIFY what happens to you, how much money you make, who you associate with, ect, etc.

Therefore, if you want to CHANGE your life and to change the obvious experienced reality you’d like to change, all you do is (See Map “B”)

Read
200 X’s

- Map “B” ? Change how you THINK.
- ? Exchange old beliefs for new ones.
- ? Alter and change how you absorb data.
- ? Change how you “re-act” to life.

13: What you receive is simply an expression of WHO you are. To change you might consider changing how you allow life to imprint and “express” itself unto you.

14: The reason I used books, master-mind clubs and other Giant minds to seduce my imagination of my SELF, was to swap map “A” for map “B.”

15: You have to slowly, like writing “code” (Html) on the internet, re-code yourself. You have to re-write each stinking dumb old belief and exchange “A” for “B.”

16: Because thought (mind) is the root “cause,” if you seek to create a different “effect,” all you do is change MIND, which is the “cause” that dictates effects.

You change your mind You leave old beliefs down at the dump and pick up new ones. Then you rehearse them, just as James Dean rehearsed his SCRIPT and new persona with other “actors” at the famous Actors Studio in California.

You can’t put OLD wine into a new sack. You need to work on this seriously if you seek to have a serious life. This is why CREW TRAINING is so important.
